TO THE CLASS OF 2008:

"...the potential to achieve the goals you set for yourself will always exist and will be determined largely by your will to reach them."

May I be one of the first to offer you heartfelt congratulations on your successful completion of high school. You have concluded one very exciting era of your young lives and now stand poised to begin an even more amazing period of personal growth and development. I hope you will find that the education you have received throughout your tenure in the Manchester Essex School District has prepared you well for the challenges and opportunities that lie before each of you.

As you leave the cozy confines of our school and explore the richness of possibilities our world has to offer you, may you find confidence in knowing that the people, who have worked to nurture you over the first 18 years of your life, remain steadfast in their support of you as you strike out independently. Know how proud your parents, your teachers, your friends, and your communities are of your accomplishments and of how well you represent each of them on a daily basis. Also know that, in life, there is no assurance of success, but the potential to achieve the goals you set for yourself will always exist and will be determined largely by your will to reach them.

I wish the very best for each one of you and, on behalf of the entire faculty and staff of MERHS, would like for you to know that it has been our pleasure watching you grow and develop into the fine young adults poised to leave our unique school.

Congratulations,
Principal James Lee

Dedication

MR. BILSBURY

The Class of 2008 would like to dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Robert Bilsbury. Throughout these past four years Mr. Bilsbury has surpassed his role of being our teacher and has become our coach, mentor, and beyond that,friend.

Through Mr.Bilsbury's enthusiasm and love of teaching, he inspires students to strive for their absolute best. No matter what, Mr. Bilsbury has been the person we could all count on for endless support.

We thank him for his non-stop energy, his team spirirt, and his loyal involvement in all school activities.

We will all truly miss his positive attitude and high spirits.

¡Te agradecemos con todas de nuestros corazones!

Love,
The Class of 2008

SENIORS

To Our Wonderful Advisors:

Ms. Benincasa--

We would like to thank you for being such an amazing class advisor. You kept us organized and motivated throughout everything we have done. You were there when we had questions or needed a hand. Without you, the past four years would not have been as memorable. We appreciate the time and effort you have devoted to making our high school years the best they can be. We'll miss you!

Mrs. Hunt--

Thank you so much for taking on the role of advisor, picking up right where Ms. Benincasa left off. You made the transition seamless! Our class appreciates the joy and creativity you brought to us everyday. With your help, our senior year was everything we could have hoped for.
We'll miss you!

"My Wish"

I hope that the days come easy and the moments pass slow,
And each road leads you where you want to go,
And if you're faced with a choice, and you have to choose,
I hope you choose the one that means the most to you.
And if one door opens to another door closed,
I hope you keep on walkin' till you find the window,
If it's cold outside, show the world the warmth of your smile,

But more than anything, more than anything,
My wish, for you, is that this life becomes all that you want it to,
Your dreams stay big, and your worries stay small,
You never need to carry more than you can hold,
And while you're out there getting where you're getting to,
I hope you know somebody loves you, and wants the same things too,
Yeah, this, is my wish.

I hope you never look back, but ya never forget,
All the ones who love you, in the place you left,
I hope you always forgive, and you never regret,
And you help somebody every chance you get,
Oh, you find grace in every mistake
And you always give more than you take.

But more than anything, yeah, and more than anything,
My wish, for you, is that this life becomes all that you want it to,
Your dreams stay big, and your worries stay small,
You never need to carry more than you can hold,
And while you're out there getting where you're getting to,
I hope you know somebody loves you, and wants the same things too,
Yeah, this, is my wish.

This is my wish
I hope you know somebody loves you
May all your dreams stay big

Danielle Louise Ciccone

Its been a crazy, fun, stressful, exciting time, and I couldn't have done it without all the people whove supported me. Dad and Bethany, you always encourage me to follow my dreams and you helped shape me into who I am today. Mom, you did the exact same and will always be in my heart. And thanks to my brothers who prevent me from growing up and always make me laugh. Thanks to all my friends who were so welcoming and made my 3 years here some of the best. I never thought Id be so close with a group of people that I've only spent a few years with. You've given me the helping hand, smile, and spontaneity I've needed. Our fun times at Singing Beach, Rockport, the beach house, etc will always be remembered. I look forward to our good times ahead. Congratulations Class of 2008, we did it!

I'm going to miss all the theater people. We had good times.Ill never forget Hearts Desire when I played a chicken.That was one of my favorite + strangest plays in Drama fest besides Witch Boy lol - good times! Ms. Hargrove was inspirational and amazing teacher who became my favorite. I got three of the warmest welcomes from Steve, Matt. & John. They helped me when I was new + helped me to meet funny, amazing and thrilling people in the Class of 08.Which bring me to thriller - Gorey Stories was nothing but interesting.Lastly its been great to be a part of this group. In my last school I never found anyone like all of you and I'm glad I've got to know all of you. Huge thanks to Ms. Hargrove who gave me a shot and was patient with me even when I would screw up. I hope all of you follow your dream and remember to Dance to the beat of your heart.

Dear Class of 2008,

We finally made it!

Graduation is moments away and will surely be one of the biggest accomplishments of our lives. Our class has not only grown into a group of extraordinary individuals but has also come together as a true blend of personalities. We are all so unique, yet have collectively managed to get to this point without any evidence of obstacles faced along the way... How many classes can say that? Who knew that the naive freshmen we started as would so quickly transform into capable young graduates?

It's safe to say that this has truly been an unforgettable experience. We both sincerely hope that each and every one of you pursue your dreams for the future-- embracing whatever it is that lies ahead-- but that you'll always remember the best friends, talented mentors, and crazy moments of your high school years.

As your editors, we've put everything into making this yearbook represent each of those memories and hope that your book will serve as a nostalgic reminder. So here's to an unbelievable four years together and to hoping that the coming years bring you the success you've earned! We wish you the very best and can't wait to see what the future holds-- See you ALL in ten years!

Love, your editors,
Taryn & Hannah

FACULTY MEMORIES of the Class of 2008

I will always have fond memories of the 39 Senior AP English students from the Class of 2008 who joined Ms. Isensee, Ms. Krause, and me in late September 2007 on a visit to the Longfellow National Historic Site in Cambridge, where we met with Matthew Pearl, the author of "The Dante Club." Along with the highlights of our tour, we can also treasure the less than glorious moment when our bus driver got lost in the city, stopped traffic on some obscure street, abruptly opened the bus door, and loudly demanded of the nearest man on the street, "Which way is Harvard?" :)

~Dr. Stuart

I'll never forget John Byrne and Phil Gillette's "bin game." John and Phil were chosen in 9th grade to attend one of the most prestigious tournaments in the country. Facing the best competition in the country, most students would be prepping for each round. Instead, John and Phil designed the "bin game," the object of which was to walk in between any two people while carrying their large bin. Regardless of whether the two people were talking or holding hands, John and Phil will politely say "excuse me" as they struggled to separate the two with their bins. The person who separated the most people won. Lets just say that they didn't make a lot of friends that weekend.

~Mr. Jewett

I have lots of memories from Project Adventure: the wall, the mohawk walk, the spider's web, the zip wire. I remember "skating" on a little patch of ice up on the golf course with classes that year- we had a mini olympic competition- what fun!

~Mrs. Mentus

To Hannah and Taryn, My Brilliant Editors....

I can't thank you enough for your dedication and hard work! It was definitely a learning process for me, and I could not have done it without you. The way you handled difficult and stressful situations always impressed me, and I feel so lucky to have worked with you. You each brought so many new and creative ideas to this book, and you should truly be proud of your accomplishment. The Class of 2008 is lucky to have you because you gave them such a fantastic yearbook. I'll miss you SO much bu I know you are both meant for bigger and better things! I only wish the best for you!

ALWAYS come back and visit!

Love,
Allison

You have been an inspiration to us all and we are just so very proud of the beautiful, intelligent, compassionate and exceptionally strong young woman you have grown up to be. Your fabulous journey has only just begun...enjoy it all and never lose sight of your dreams for they will always lead you on the right path to happiness and success.
We love you very much and will be there for you every step of the way...
With all our love,
Mom, Chris & Connor
(& 'W' too!)
XOXOXOXO
Congratulations
Class of 2008!

My eyes open
not to snow on a mountain,
but total darkness.
I get up walk over to the curtain, and open it.
as soon as I did it seemed I was being blinded,
The gleaming of the sun on the snow made the light extremely bright.
I look to the right
and there is that picture perfect half frozen river still flowing.
I realize this is a better gift that any other.

Original, 3rd stanza, R. Schwartz, Dec. 18, 2003

Thanks for so many gifts, Love - Whitney, Dad, and Mom

Scotty -
Congrats on being DONE!!!
I'm proud to have you for my 'little' brother - you are really a role model for me and so many others. Keep being faithful with the little things - they're what make you you. I love you so much... thanks for being a great little bro and one of my best friends.
Love,
Laur-Laur

p.s. Micah 6:8.

Well, my boy-...off you go...
And I can't even believe it!

Words of Wisdom?
1) Get enough sleep
2) Eat well, stay hydrated
And take your vitamins
3) Keep on being kind and sensitive and humble
4) Come home often for a hug and a fresh baked cookie
5) Be quick to pray, seek healthy counsel and don't give up
6) Don't speed ☺

You are an incredible gift...
I love you Scottie

I find the great thing in this world is not so much where we stand, as in what direction we are moving: To reach the port of heaven, we must sail sometimes with the wind and sometimes against it, but we must sail, and not drift, nor lie at anchor.

Seasons of Love...

ne greatest thing you'll ever learn is just to love and be loved in return

In daylights, in sunsets, in midnights, in cups of coffe
In inches, in miles, in laughter, in strife...
How do you measure a year in the life?
How about love?

You'll be with me like a handprint on my heart
And now whatever way our stories end
I know you have rewritten mine by being my friend

And life is a road and I wanna keep going
Love is a river and I wanna keep flowing
Life is a road now and forever
Wonderful journey

And the moon and the stars are the same ones you see
It's the same old sun up in the sky...
